

FALL 2007

SEWING FOR THE HOME

Tues. 5:00 pm - 9:00 pm Room 16

CLTX 650

Sept. 11 - Jan. 15 17 weeks

"Windows with Style"

Making your own window treatment is a proven way to save money. They are easy to make but incorporate many specific techniques. Class topics include: How to calculate yardage, match repeats, drapery tapes, insert a lining and tips on sewing with sheers. This is a lab class, be prepared to sew. Come to first class with pictures and ideas.

Prerequisite - Sewing Fundamentals

SEW LIKE A PRO

Wed. 9:00 am - 1:00 pm Room 16

Wed. 5:00 pm - 9:00 pm Room 16

CLTX 630

Sept. 5 - Jan. 16 17 weeks

Sept. 5 - Jan. 16 17 weeks

"Activewear with Wearable Style"

From rugged outerwear to high fashion, fleece and pile fabrics have taken the world by storm. You will find useful information in this class for getting professional results when sewing with these fabrics. Planned class projects are: something easy and fun, a sporty jacket or vest and a fashionable garment.

Prerequisite - Sewing Fundamentals

SEWING FUNDAMENTALS

Sat. 9:00 am - 1:00 pm Room 16

CLTX 620

Sept. 8 - Dec. 15 14 weeks

"Beyond the Basics"

Is all about sewing today's fashions and expressing your creativity. While completing fun, easy projects, you will receive step-by-step instruction for building your sewing and fitting skills. The class is designed for the student with basic sewing knowledge. This is a lab class, be prepared to sew. Machines are available in class.